

FINAL TERMS OF SETTLEMENT READY

Allied Premiers Fix Thirty-Three Billion as Indemnity.

Ultimatum Dictates Only Method Payment Acceptable.

GERMANY MUST YIELD

If Present Berlin Cabinet Refuses It Must Fall.

Fatherland Determined Ruhr Basin Must Not Be Taken.

FINAL ULTIMATUM.

Allies demand $33,750,000,000 (present value.)

PAYMENTS.

Three classes of gold bonds bearing 5 per cent interest. One issue to be delivered July 1, the second on November 1, and the third on an allied commission believes desirable.

German exportation taxed 25 to 26 per cent, expected to yield $500,000,000 a year.

Germany to make annual payments of $200,000,000 and to pay $250,000,000 within three months.

PENALTY.

Invasion of the Ruhr district with gradually increasing pressure. Possibly a naval demonstration before German ports.

London, May 4.—The allies today prepared to submit a final proposal to Germany for settlement of the world war.

With a demand that Germany pay $33,750,000,000 to the allied countries, the supreme council notified Berlin that penalties will be exacted if the terms are not accepted by midnight of a certain day, believed to be May 12.

The supreme council's note, providing for payment of the debt by bond issues and exacting an export tax, was to be transmitted to Berlin by the allied reparations commission which conferred with the supreme council today.

New German Official Rumored.

It was reported that Germany had submitted a new offer of indemnity to the allied demand. This was denied by the foreign office. The report was characterized as a "German invention."

Berlin, It was stated that the new allied terms are more favorable than those proposed at the Paris conference on reparations. It was believed by attaches that Germany started the rumor of a new offer to conceal what satisfaction she feels in the new allied proposals.

A copy of the allied ultimatum will be sent to Washington simultaneously with its dispatch to Berlin.

The supreme council's labors were reported to have been completed except for a decision on naval action in case of Germany's rejection of the ultimatum. It was stated that Washington will be consulted before a draft are sent to blockade German ports.

Berlin Will Refuse.

Berlin, May 4.—Germany will yield to allied indemnity demands by submitting to further invasion, it was believed in well informed circles today. If the present government will not sign, a government will be found which will sign.

There were numerous declarations that Germany will reject the allied demands. Her capitalists were among those determined to refuse to pay. Hugo Stinnes, one of the leading industrialists of this faction, was reported to have been approached by French agents who wished to learn his attitude on the threatened invasion of the Ruhr valley. Stinnes said he had refused the agents with the assertion:

"You will have to come and see me later. Anyway, you will find that American coal will put the Ruhr mines out of business just as they have the Saar coal."

"You may make a beggar out of me, but you will come to me later, nevertheless."

DISRUPT BLACK HAND GANG

Breaking Oath of Loyalty Meant Death, Say Police—19 Under Arrest.

Scranton, Pa., May 4.—With nineteen of its alleged members under arrest, local and state police expressed the belief today that they had broken up one of the most menacing black-hand gangs that ever operated in this section of the state. All of the prisoners were held in heavy bail after hearing before magistrate. Five turned state's evidence and relied on the witness stand some of the alleged practices of the band.

Headquarters of the gang, according to the informers, was maintained at Carbondale, Pa., and men were sent out from there to perform black-hand missions in many sections of the state. Its efforts, they told the authorities, were not only centered on extorting money from citizens, but its members also engaged in robbing freight cars and business places.

Breaking of the oath of loyalty to the gang was said to mean death to the offender.

WAGE MAN ISSUE

Working Conditions Adjusted to Suit Striking Sailors.

Slash of Fifteen Per Cent Now Bar to Peace.

BOTH SIDES STAND FIRM

Little Prospect for Immediate Settlement, Say Officials.

Port Arthur, Texas, Only U. S. Port Now Operating.

Washington, May 4.—With differences over working conditions practically adjusted, the wage controversy today threatened to defeat efforts to mediate the recent strike.

The men are holding out against any reduction of wages and the ship owners and Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board, also refuse to yield.

Prospects Not Bright.

Prospects for an immediate settlement of the shipping wage controversy were said to be anything but bright after a conference today between Secretaries Davis and Hooper, and representatives of the shipping board and steamship owners.

However, had not given up hope and arranged to meet later in the day with spokesmen for the unions.

The shipping men were reported to have refused to yield on wage cuts and the union men refused to yield on the matter of a 15 per cent wage reduction ordered by the shipping board last Saturday.

Steamship owners expressed confidence that they would be able to maintain a sailing schedule.

Port Arthur Still Open.

Port Arthur, Tex., May 4.—Four American steamers left this port yesterday, all with parts of their old crews at their ports, according to a statement by the agent of the marine firemen's union here.
